

TEENAGERS by Alys Tomlinson

FOR JUST A MOMENT, FEAR AND DESPONDENCY ARE CAPTURED IN A SINGLE EXPOSURE

Teenagers- a group topically discussed by young and old alike. The young aspire to be them, and the old recount vaguely that they were better behaved in their day. More than 9,000 people are excluded from school in the UK each year, many of these disaffected pupils are also the most vulnerable. Alys Tomlinson captures this apparently nonchalant vulnerability through blank expressions and full on gazes.
